

CARE WORK AND THE ECONOMY

Advancing policy solutions with gender-aware macroeconomic models

2019 ANNUAL MEETING GLASGOW, SCOTLAND June 30-July 2, 2019

Sunday, June 30

200 SVS (200 St Vincent St, Glasgow, G2 5SG, UK)

9:00–9:45 AM Session 1: Introductions & Project Overview

Maria Floro (Professor, American University and CWE-GAM Principal Investigator)
Alfonsina Peñaloza (Program Officer, Global Development and Population, The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation)
Marina Durano (Senior Program Officer, Women's Rights Program, Open Society Foundations)
Elizabeth King (Nonresident Senior Fellow, Global Economy and Development, Brookings Institution and CWE-GAM Co-Principal Investigator)

9:45–10:00 AM Session 2: Rethinking Macroeconomics Introduction

Elissa Braunstein (Professor, Colorado State University)

10:00–10:15 AM Coffee and Tea

10:15–12:00 PM Session 3: Rethinking Macroeconomics (Part 1)

Moderator: Stephanie Seguino (Professor, University of Vermont)

"The Unequal Distribution of Care Work and the Macroeconomy"

by Ignacio Garcia González (Assistant Professor, American University), Lidia Brun (Doctoral Student, Université Libre de Bruxelles), Maria Floro (Professor, American University), Bong Sun Seo (Doctoral Student, American University)

"Long-Term Care And Family Power Dynamics"

by Ray Miller (Assistant Professor, Colorado State University) and Neha Bairoliya (Assistant Professor, University of Tennessee, Knoxville)

“Policy Analysis in a Macroeconomic Model of Social Reproduction”

by Elissa Braunstein (Professor, Colorado State University) and Daniele Tavani (Associate Professor, Colorado State University)

Discussants:

Nancy Folbre (Director, Program on Gender and Care Work, PERI, University of Massachusetts Amherst)

James Heintz (Andrew Glyn Professor of Economics, University of Massachusetts Amherst)

A. Haroon Akram Lodhi (Professor, Trent University)

12:00–1:30 PM Lunch (200 SVS, 200 St Vincent St, Glasgow, G2 5SG, UK)

1:30–2:45 PM Session 4: Rethinking Macroeconomics (Part 2)

Moderator: Robert Blecker (Professor, American University)

“Impact of Policy Interventions at Reduction and Redistribution of Unpaid Care Work On Employment Generation, Time- And Income-Poverty And Gender Gaps: A Macro-Micro Policy Simulation For Turkey”

by Ipek Ilkkaracan (Professor of Economics, Istanbul Technical University), Kijong Kim (Research Scholar, Levy Economics Institute of Bard College), Tom Masterson (Director of Applied Micromodeling and Research Scholar, Levy Economics Institute of Bard College), Emel Memis (Professor of Economics, Ankara University), and Ajit Zacharias (Senior Scholar and Director, Levy Economics Institute of Bard College)

“The Effect of Gender Equality and Fiscal Policy on Growth and Employment: The Case of South Korea”

by Cem Oyvatt (Lecturer in Economics, University of Greenwich) and Özlem Onaran (Professor of Economics, University of Greenwich)

Discussants:

Diane Elson (Emeritus Professor, University of Essex)

Stephanie Seguino (Professor, University of Vermont)

2:45–3:30 PM Session 5: Rethinking Macroeconomics Discussion

Elissa Braunstein (Professor, Colorado State University)

3:30–4:00 PM Coffee and Tea

4:00–5:30 PM Session 6: Roundtable on Current and Future Demand for Care and its Implications for the Economy

Moderator: Elizabeth King (Nonresident Senior Fellow, Global Economy and Development, Brookings Institution)

Speakers:

Valeria Esquivel (Employment Policies and Gender Specialist, ILO)

Nancy Folbre (Director, Program on Gender and Care Work, PERI, University of Massachusetts Amherst)

Caren Grown (Senior Director, Gender, World Bank)

A. Haroon Akram Lodhi (Professor, Trent University)

6:00 PM Welcome Dinner (The Anchor Line: 12 St Vincent Pl, Glasgow G1 2DH, UK)

8:30–10:00 AM Session 7: Accounting for the Care Economy in South Korea: Now & the Future

Moderator: Valeria Esquivel (Employment Policies and Gender Specialist, ILO)

“Methodology Report on Counting Paid Care Work in Korea”

by Jooyeoun Suh (Longevity Economy Director, AARP)

“Methodology Report on Counting Unpaid Care Work in Korea”

by Jooyeoun Suh (Longevity Economy Director, AARP)

“Projecting Demand and Supply in the Care Economy”

by Gretchen Donehower (Academic Specialist and Researcher, University of California, Berkeley)

Discussants:

Young Ock Kim (Senior Fellow, Korean Women's Development Institute)

Margarita Guerrero (Director, United Nations Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific)

Isabella Aboderin (Head of the Aging and Development Unit, African Population and Health Research Center)

10:00–11:15 AM Session 8: Understanding Care Provisioning in South Korea (Part 1)

Moderator: Hans Lofgren

“An Overview of Care Policies and the Status of Care Workers in South Korea”

by Ito Peng (Professor, University of Toronto), Seung-Eun Cha (Associate Professor, University of Suwon), and Hyuna Moon (Senior Researcher, Seoul National University)

“Care Arrangement and Caregiving Activities in South Korea: An Analysis of the Care Work Family Survey on Childcare and Eldercare”

by Eunhye Kang (Doctoral Student, Seoul National University) and Ki-Soo Eun (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)

Discussants:

Marzia Fontana (Research Associate, University of Sussex)

Luis Carlos Reyes Hernández (Assistant Professor of Economics, Pontificia Universidad Javeriana)

11:15–11:30 AM Coffee and Tea

11:30–1:00 PM Session 9: Understanding Care Provisioning in South Korea (Part 2)

Moderator: Maria Floro (Professor, American University and CWE-GAM Principal Investigator)

“Measuring the Overall Strain of Caregiving: A Multidimensional Approach”

by Jiweon Jun (Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, University of Toronto), Ito Peng (Professor, University of Toronto), and Ki-Soo Eun (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)

“Family Caregivers’ Elder Care: Understanding Their Hard Time and Care Burden”

by Hyuna Moon (Senior Researcher, Seoul National University), Seung-Eun Cha (Associate Professor, University of Suwon), Ito Peng (Professor, University of Toronto)

“Glimpse of Family Caregivers' Context: Actual Time vs. Desired Time for Elderly Care”

by Seung-Eun Cha (Associate Professor, University of Suwon) and Hyuna Moon (Senior Researcher, Seoul National University)

Discussants:

Carmen Estrades (Assistant Professor, Universidad de la República)

Flora Myamba (Social Protection and Gender Specialist, Women and Social Protection Tanzania)

Phanwin Yokying (Research Program Fellow, East-West Center)

- 1:00–1:45 PM Lunch (Glasgow Caledonian University, CEE Suite, Rooms 6 & 7, Cowcaddens Rd, Glasgow G4 0BA)
- 1:45–2:30 PM Session 10: Applied Macromodeling and Care Provision: An Overview
Moderator: Ipek Ilkcaracan (Professor of Economics, Istanbul Technical University)
“Applied Modelling of Gender Equitable Macro-Policies and Care Provision: The Contribution of Computable General Equilibrium (CGE) Models”
by Marzia Fontana (Research Associate, University of Sussex), Bideriya Byambasuren (Doctoral Student, American University), and Carmen Estrades (Assistant Professor, Universidad de la República)
Discussant: Robert Blecker (Professor, American University)
- 2:30–4:15 PM Session 11: Applied Macromodeling Workshop
Moderator: Diane Elson (Emeritus Professor, University of Essex)
“A Gendered Social Accounting Matrix for South Korea”
by Hans Lofgren
“Care Policies in South Korea: Potential Simulations with a Computable General Equilibrium Model”
by Hans Lofgren
Discussants:
Susan Himmelweit (Professor of Economics, Open University)
Martín Cicowiez (Professor of Economics, National University of La Plata)
Daniele Tavani (Associate Professor, Colorado State University)
Donghoon Yoo (Associate Research Fellow, Korea Labor Institute)
- 4:15–4:45 PM Coffee & Tea
- 4:45–6:15 PM Session 12: Roundtable on Addressing Care Needs: What Can We Learn from The Scottish and Korean Experiences?
Moderator: Shahra Razavi (Research and Data Chief, UN Women)
Speakers:
Ki-Soo Eun (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)
Lindsey Henderson (Head of Carers’ Policy Unit, Scottish Government)
Young Ock Kim (Senior Fellow, Korean Women’s Development Institute)
Emily Thomson (Senior Lecturer, WISE Centre for Economic Justice, Glasgow Caledonian University)
Lynn Williams (Full-time Unpaid Carer, Scotland)
- 6:30 PM Reception (Glasgow Caledonian University, CEE Suite, Rooms 6 & 7, Cowcaddens Rd, Glasgow G4 0BA)

Tuesday, July 2 Glasgow Caledonian University CEE 6&7 (Cowcaddens Rd, Glasgow G4 0BA, UK)

- 9:00–10:30 AM Session 14: Looking Ahead: Policy Issues, Research Tools, and Opportunities for Replication
Overall Facilitators:
Maria Floro (Professor, American University and CWE-GAM Principal Investigator)
Ito Peng (Professor, University of Toronto)
Group Sessions:
Latin America and Caribbean Region
Africa Region
Asia Region
Comments: Marina Durano (Senior Program Officer, Women’s Rights Program, Open Society Foundations)

10:30–11:00 AM Coffee & Tea

11:00–12:30 PM Session 15: Team Consultations

Moderators:

Maria Floro (Professor, American University and CWE-GAM Principal Investigator)

Elizabeth King (Nonresident Senior Fellow, Global Economy and Development, Brookings Institution and CWE-GAM Co-Principal Investigator)

Presenters:

Elissa Braunstein (Professor, Colorado State University)

Ki-Soo Eun (Associate Professor, Seoul National University)

Hans Lofgren

12:30–2:00 PM Lunch and Departures (Glasgow Caledonian University, CEE Suite, Rooms 6 & 7, Cowcaddens Rd, Glasgow G4 0BA)